VELA Exercise chairs

The VELA Exercise Chair is designed for training and rehabilitation, e.g. along with an arm and leg trainer

:: A safe exercise chair with an anti-tip bar that provides extra stability even during powerful movements, for example, when doing exercises using the arm and leg trainer

:: The chair's wheels and brake make it easy for the patient to move back and forth between their bed and the training equipment, and provide stability when the patient is positioned correctly at the equipment

:: Seat can be tilted backward or forward to optimise the patient's sitting position during the training

:: Backrest can be adjusted to optimise the patient's back support during the training exercises

The high backrest and the deep seat help create extra support and comfort.

CHAIRS DESIGNED WITH CARE AND PRECISION

The development department at VELA is constantly focused on optimising safety, functionality and ergonomics in cooperation with health professionals.

We take into consideration that chairs in the healthcare sector are exposed to severe wear and tear for many hours each day.
At VELA, we use hard-wearing mechanical parts and extra-durable seating materials to keep the chairs clean and functional for many years. All VELA chairs are CE marked and made in Denmark.
